

April 2, 1990

Community Concert and is an active member of the High Plains Arts Council. Mrs. Durham is secretary to the Board of Governors of Joslyn Art Museum and is a member of the Omaha Children's Museum Advisory Committee. In the past, her activities have included being president of the Omaha Community Playhouse Board, a member of the Omaha Symphony Guild Board and a member of the Omaha Symphony Debutante Ball Committee. She has also received a number of awards, including the Omaha Community Playhouse Presidents Award. Mrs. Ferguson is an artist and has been a member of the Nebraska Arts Council for the past four years. She was a member of the City of Omaha Public Art Commission in the past and currently serves on the Landmark Historic Preservation Committee, Commission, excuse me. Mr. Waites is a long-time performer and currently is the musical director for the Omaha Jazz Society and is leader of a professional jazz ensemble called Luigi Incorporated, to name a few of his activities. And then, finally, the State Electrical Board reappointment, Mr. Sides, has been a member of the board for 10 years and he's a retired rural electrician. The General Affairs Committee voted, on March 27, to recommend to the Legislature that the appointments of these six individuals be confirmed. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Any further discussion? If not, the question is the adoption of all of the members as outlined by Senator Smith. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, no nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the General Affairs confirmation report.

PRESIDENT: The confirmation report is adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Wesely, Chair of the Health and Human Services Committee, would report on three appointments to the Commission for Hearing Impaired and one appointment to the Rural Health Manpower Commission.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wesely, please.

SENATOR WESELY: Mr. President, members, the Health and Human Services Committee did have a hearing on various appointments to the Rural Health Manpower Commission and the Commission for Hearing Impaired and did suggest that these be confirmed by the Legislature. Kimberly Apker was appointed to the Rural Health