

you can do anything you have got to track the language of the Constitution. You're going to have to set up this area of the state which is consistent with the institution's primary service responsibilities and you're going to have to define those terms. Otherwise, for election law purposes, there is too much vagueness and ambiguity to guide the judgment of anybody. So the Legislature is restricting what it can do by keeping this language and the language is very vague and confusing, so I hope you will strike it. And then I am going to offer an amendment with reference to the other thing we're talking about in terms of the political party affiliation.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Chambers was closing on his amendment. The motion is the adoption of the amendment by Senator Chambers. Those in support vote aye, those opposed vote...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Call of the house...

SENATOR LAMB: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...first? (inaudible) ...that "no" closer to the preceding word so that it's clear what it attaches to.

SENATOR LAMB: Shall the house go under call? Do I see five seconds? I do not see five seconds. All those in support of the house going under call please vote aye, those opposed, no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR LAMB: The house is under call. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. All senators return to check in. All senators please return to the Chamber. The house is under call. For what purpose do you rise, Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, a number of members came in asking what the amendment is about, thinking that this is closing, so I'm going to withdraw the amendment and I might offer it later, but I'm not going to put us through a vote and then move to reconsider and take all that extra time.

SENATOR LAMB: The amendment is withdrawn. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President...
