

LR 239. If we're going to break out the student vote, then we ought to break out some of these other ideas and let the...what we're doing with the Regents be one part of a question to be taken by itself, and let the part that relates to the boards of trustees be voted on as separate entities. Then maybe that's what's being done. May I ask Senator Withem a question?

SPEAKER BARRETT PRESIDING

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Withem, please.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Withem, when this proposition reaches the ballot, assuming that it does, will the material related to the Board of Regents be one separate proposition on the ballot, and the material related to the boards of trustees a separate entity...

SENATOR WITHEM: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...in the same way that...oh, so we're just breaking out the student vote...

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...to be separate.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. I'm opposed to that being done so my amendment would simply say that the question of whether or not a student on the board of trustees shall vote would be voted on at the same time as the rest of the material in LR 239.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Mr. Clerk, you have a motion on the desk.

CLERK: Mr. President, a priority motion. Senator McFarland would move to bracket LR 239 until April 9, 1990.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Chair recognizes Senator McFarland.

SENATOR MCFARLAND: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and fellow senators. I was a little bit hesitant to bring a bracket motion. I had
