notwithstanding the fact that most of us have to swallow, from time to time, hard on some of those bills. Many times Senator Chambers and I have stood on this floor side by side and I'll do it again, but at this time, Senator Chambers, I do not stand in awe of you. I do not fear you. I like you, respect you, but I am not going to be afraid of you. Ladies and gentlemen, I support the motion for reconsideration.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Moore, please, followed by Senator Hefner and Senator Chambers.

SENATOR MOORE: I will pass.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hefner, please.

SENATOR HEFNER: Question.

PRESIDENT: Question has been called, do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 1 nay to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Debate has ceased. Senator Labedz, please.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, Mr. President. I suppose I could call this the last chance, certainly not the "Last Supper", although I just had a roll, but I will stand again and urge the senators to...at least two more senators to vote yes on overruling the Speaker's agenda. I will also need 30 on the next...am I right, Mr. Clerk, that I will also need 30 votes again to suspend the rules?

CLERK: Yes.

SENATOR LABEDZ: This is just to overrule the Speaker's agenda so that we can overrule the...I mean and put the suspension of the rules up with no further debates or amendment, and that comes up next. So we had 28 votes. We need 30, so I'm asking as Senator Schimek said the other day, please, please, please. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, and the question is...Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: A point of order. Does this take...this takes 25
