

April 3, 1990

bit tired of some of my friends who come to me time after time after time and say we have got to do something about Chambers, can't put up with this, absolutely, it is a disgrace. Do you know what the disgrace is? The disgrace is that, when Senator Chambers challenges you, you haven't got enough starch in your backbone to stiffen a shirt collar. And you turn tail, and you run, and you hunker down, and you find some weak excuse as to why you will not vote for a motion which you have voted for before and which you will vote for again. Oh, yes, that is right. And Senator Chambers can do it to you again and again and again. You all went out of here with your tail between your legs last Friday and you were so angry. Do you know what I did? I went up to Omaha for four hours and debated Scotty. Now he beat me fair and square. He raises his voice and talks fast when his arguments aren't very strong but he whipped me and I accept that. I accept that because he is good at what he does. Further than that, he got his training from Harold Sieck, he has been at it for eight years, and he knows what to do, and so there I took my whipping and I came back. I came back here, you folks were still at it. Senator Chambers had you running around chasing your tail and you didn't know what to do. Ladies and gentlemen, you had a dozen opportunities during the day to take it over. You don't want to stand up to Senator Chambers. You can pick up the rule book sometimes, ladies and gentlemen, and read it, and remember what it says, and use the rule book. Use the rule book, oh, no, that is too much work. That is too much work. Besides that, besides that, Senator Chambers will always find another way to whip you, and so, oh, my goodness sakes, now Senator Chambers is going to come back again. Senator Chambers is the only really altruistic truly unbiased person on this floor. He is the only man I know who has never ever voted against a person's bill because he didn't like the person, personally. The rest of us are all victims of pick and personality disorders, et cetera, et cetera. Not Senator Chambers. Do you really believe that? Not by a darn sight. We all know from time to time personalities enter into what happens on this floor, sometimes maybe justifiably so, sometimes not. I can tell you, ladies and gentlemen, that I have received a substantial amount of mail, some of it could be classified as hate mail, since I chose Senator Lindsay's bill as my priority bill, some of it alludes to various other factors...

PRESIDENT: One minute.

SENATOR SCHMIT: ...as to why I would choose that bill. Ladies