

whenever they want to make a point, they trot this woman out and have her say about black people, if you are for a woman's right to have a choice, you are not African-American. Crazy! And when she is not out trying to undermine black people, she wears a polka dot bandanna, she has a large mixing bowl, and the Cardinal says, Aunt Jemima, make me some pancakes. So Aunt Jemima makes the Cardinal his pancakes. And then when she works as fast as she possibly can making the Cardinal's pancakes, he loves pancakes, and brings him his syrup, do you know what the Cardinal's first question is to her. Aunt Jemima, what took you so long? They even made a commercial about it and that is the way black people are demeaned and degraded. To have this job with the Cardinal, and they created a long title that they hung on her, she is a Deputy Dean or Associate Assistant to the this or that, and what our experience tells us is that when somebody has a long title, they have no authority and nothing of substance that they do. The head of Russia is called the President. The head of the United States is called the President. The head of England is called the Prime Minister. England is not as strong so it takes two terms to designate that leader, but when you get to where real power is, it doesn't take a lot of words to designate it because the power inheres in the office and there is no need to create the impression of power through a lot of titles that are hung on individuals. And this woman was dragged all the way from New York to Nebraska. I don't know if they made her walk, if they let her ride, if they made her hitchhike, but her greatest contribution to the discussion on a woman's right to have an abortion is to say that any black person who favors a woman's right to have an abortion is not an African-American. What am I than? Am I Irish? No. Am I British? No. Am I Polish, Senator Labeledz? No. To prove that I am not Polish, Senator Labeledz gave me a sticker that said if you are not Polish, fake it. If I am Polish, I don't have to fake it. Am I Hebrew? No. So what am I. I am nothing because I am a black man who believes in a woman's right to have an abortion. Look at my color, where did I come from? Africa. But here comes the underling to the Cardinal who speaks ex cathedra...

SPEAKER BARRETT: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...on matters pertaining to African-Americans. In the same way that the Pope can excommunicate wayward Catholics from the church, she excommunicates black people from the African-American group. I
