

I believe I'm correct it should be pulled like every other one has been pulled, like LB 431A had been pulled this morning. Senator Hall said he's going to draft a resolution to try to get some kind of intent before whoever would need it. I don't know what the impact of that will be because I haven't seen a situation confronting us like the one where the Banking Director has made the kind of determination she has made. She is an administrator, has decided to construe a law in a certain way. If there is no effective challenge, then what she says is the way it's going to be done. The means of making that challenge is up to those who will be harmed by it. The Legislature has to consider what it's going to do in the face of that challenge. But I'll tell you this--the rules have been played with and Senator Labeledz says that she doesn't think that a bracket motion can be amended. I know that a lot of things have been done with the rules; but if that cannot be done, then her motion to suspend the rules is out of order because I say it is and a few of us feel that way. And we'll just have a shouting match and there won't be anybody recognized and allowed to say and do anything. Now they've been able to bulldoze and bully and if that's the way they like to do it, we can all do it. They're not the only ones. And if that's the way it's to be, fine. But Senator Warner can control this whole thing by simply moving to withdraw his bill, which under the rules he has the right to do. He has no co-sponsors. What the Chair could have done was to pull the A bill when there's no need for it as he did with LB 431. This abortion thing has not only tainted this session, it has corrupted it. There is so much fanaticism, outright zealotry that is being orchestrated outside this state that the Legislature no longer belongs to the legislators. There are others outside this state setting the agenda. And there are people on this floor getting their marching orders. And they're going to try their best as little tin soldiers to do what they've been dictated to, and I'm going to fight it every step of the way. They're willing to do this, to hold the session their way and I'm willing to do everything within my power to stop them. The motion before us is one to overrule the agenda. I don't even know that the motion is for to...I don't know what the agenda is being overruled for. But as far as LB 1141A, the agenda doesn't have to be overruled or dealt with in any way for the Speaker to pull it or for Senator Warner to make a motion to withdraw it. So, in a sense, we're expressing what we feel, we're getting things on the record, but our wheels are spinning. It's clear that those in Washington, D.C., who call themselves pro life have said to Hades with the depositors. That's what it
