Senator Lynch, it is appropriate to move it along, but it is, it is very important to these towns, and they are, obviously, the backbone of our state.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Scofield.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Mr. President, thank you. I would, my resolution is one that recognizes and honors the people involved in Cooperative Extension work, 4-H members, Home Extension Club leaders, Master Gardeners, and other volunteer leaders, and I think given the importance that we all place on this effort to the people in the State of Nebraska, if there is no objection, I would like to ask unanimous consent to add the names of all the members of the body to this resolution. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Langford, please.

SENATOR LANGFORD: The town that I would like to honor is Pleasanton. It is in the north of Buffalo County. They have already written a complete history of their town which I think is pretty outstanding for a village that size. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Perhaps I should respond to Senator Scofield's request there. Is there any objection to adding all names to these resolutions? If not, so ordered. Senator Rogers, please.

SENATOR ROGERS: Mr. Speaker, and members, KNLV is the only radio station in my district, and this summer they will be celebrating their 25th anniversary.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Hefner, please.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. President and members of the body, I have four towns that are sending...that are celebrating their centennial this year. I am real proud of them. They are all small communities and they are working very hard to have a great celebration in honor of their 100th anniversary. The first one is Belden located in Cedar County. The next one is Bloomfield located in Knox County, and I passed an article around on Bloomfield. They just landed the Waldbaum plant, Waldbaum Egg Plant, and they will start construction of this plant in the next month or so, and to start with, it will hire between 55 and 60 employees, and maybe in a couple of years there will be another 50 or 60 employees, but it is an investment of
