

take a point of personal privilege before I announce a recess motion, some of you already know but maybe you all don't know that over this weekend my wife and I were given a great pleasure. My oldest daughter of four daughters presented my wife, Mary Lou, and I with our first grandson, first grandchild and it happens to be a baby boy and his name is going to be Zachary John. I've been thinking about calling him the "Famous Johnny Z", just so we kind of keep it around here a little bit but, in any case, I'm a proud Grandpa right now. My staff downstairs did prepare a small cake for me. I have to emphasize "small" so that if any of you care to come down and have a piece, it'd be my pleasure to have you. With that, I would move that we recess until 1:00 p.m.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Congratulations to you, Senator Hannibal. And the motion is to recess until 1:00 p.m., one o'clock. All in favor say aye. Opposed no. Ayes have it. Motion carried. We are recessed. (Gavel.)

RECESS

SPEAKER BARRETT PRESIDING

CLERK: I have a quorum present, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. With a quorum present, proceed, Mr. Clerk, to item 7, veto overrides, LB 1031.

CLERK: Excuse me, Mr. President. The first motion I have with respect to LB 1031 is offered by the Appropriations Committee. It's found on page 1962 of the Journal. It would move that Section 49, subsection (2), relating to Community Aging Services become law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. The Chair recognizes Senator Warner, please. (Gavel.)

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, one of the rules the Appropriations Committee is designated to make a report to the Legislature on overrides of the mainline appropriation bill and in this case that would only pertain to LB 1031. And, as you all know, there were a number of items that were proposed for veto on that legislation. In discussing
