

November 16, 1989 LR 8, 9

please.

PRESIDENT: Yes, sir. Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HABERMAN: You're suspending the rules on just 8 and 9?

SENATOR HEFNER: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Okay, that's fine. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion? You've heard the motion. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. It requires 30 votes. Please vote, if you care to, because we do require 30 votes and we'll need most of you to vote on the suspension of the rules on number 8 and 9. We're going to jump over LR 7 for the time being. For those who have just come in, we're voting on the suspension of rules. Record, please.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to suspend the rule to permit consideration of LR 8 and LR 9 this morning.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. May I introduce a guest, please, of Senator Lynch. We have Tom Furey of the Furey Heating and Plumbing in Omaha, who is the Honorary Mayor of Florence, Nebraska. Would you please stand, Tom, and be recognized. Thank you for visiting us today. LR 7, please. We're passing that over. LR 9. LR 8. Somewhere in there.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 8, by Senator Wesely, asks the Legislature to declare December 1, 1989, as World AIDS Day.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wesely, please.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. President. You'll recall that this came to me from the President. President Nichol had been contacted by the Nebraska AIDS Project and I'm introducing it on their behalf to recognize World AIDS Day. Just for your information, of course, we're all familiar with the problem of AIDS. Senator Coordsen got it mixed up with the Agency for International Development that President Roskins is about to take over. This is AIDS in terms of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, which is the deadly disease we're all very concerned about. For your information, I find it kind of interesting, to update us on this, in the United States, since May of '81, when we first found AIDS in this country, there are 100,000 cases of
