PRESIDENT NICHOL: Thank you. Senator Hall, please.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Mr. President and members. I rise to also place my name in nomination for chairmanship of the Revenue Committee. I do that not with the chronological expertise of Senator Lowell Johnson, the humbleness of Senator Moore, the love of self of Senator Chambers, and I am clearly not as honest as any other member of the body. Maybe that is why I am a good match for chairmanship of the Revenue Committee, but, seriously, I have had an opportunity and an honor to serve as chairman of that committee over the last two years. It has been a wonderful experience and I think the membership of the committee has made that so. It has been folks like Senator Elroy Hefner, Senator David Landis and Senator Paul Hartnett, all of whom I hope come back to serve on the committee, that have made that experience one that has helped me deal with a number of tough issues here on the floor as we debated them as a body. I would like to have that opportunity again and I would appreciate your support toward that end. Thank you.

PRESIDENT NICHOL: Thank you. Are there other nominations? I have no other lights on. Okay, if no other lights, the nominations have been closed and you will please mark your ballots on your desk and the Clerk will collect them. As some tellers, Senator Schimek, are you available to help us this time? Thank you. Senator Owen Elmer, Senator Chris Beutler. The Clerk has advised me that Senator Hall is the new Chairman of Revenue. Congratulations to Senator Hall. I have been asked to announce that...Ruth Johnson has asked it to be announced that the Unicameral Club consisting of senators' spouses will meet in Room 1019 immediately after adjournment. And for those who are new here, 1019 is a room just to the southwest of this hall. So please meet there immediately after adjournment for a few moments. I made a mistake, 1019 is not here anymore. It is on the first floor down below next to the press room. So if any of you get lost, look me up and I will tell you where to go. Thank you, Mrs. Johnson. We will move on to Transportation, please. Nominations are in order for Transportation. Senator Kristensen, please.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President. I rise this morning to place my name for election as the Chairman of the Transportation Committee, and it has been said many times this morning, and I think maybe to sum it up, is that we all truly
