

February 1, 1991 LB 88

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Please bear with me,...

SENATOR CROSBY: That's all right.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...so I can sort out your question.

SENATOR CROSBY: That's okay, I'd like to know.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: You have a woman who's been raped and she is going to be sued, or she is suing?

SENATOR CROSBY: She has mental anguish that she is going to have the rest of her life.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay, she is suing the person, or she's suing the hotel?

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, the hotel, the public schools, there's all kinds of people that might...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay, because you're really...

SENATOR CROSBY: You aren't going to sue the guy that raped, that's for sure.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Could we just...okay, you're going to sue the hotel and you're going to say that the hotel is...should pay her money because...

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, it could be based on security or whatever, you know.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...that they didn't have any security.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, right.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay. There's going to be a real, a real problem with deciding if they were liable, okay, because they're going to say that you had security with your own door.

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CROSBY: Under the present...
