to get the money that they survive on. And do you know what the NCAA boasted about doing in January, Senator Hefner? Instead of allowing the players to have two meals at the training table a day, they get one meal...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and they are proud of that. Do you think that is fair? I don't.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. We now go to Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, I am not sure how I am going to vote on this bill, quite honestly, and to that end, I would like to ask Senator Chambers if he would permit some questions to clarify some aspects of it

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: There are a number of things I still don't understand, and I apologize for not having read your handout, Senator Chambers. I was one of those that didn't get to it over the weekend. Focusing for the minute on the felony provisions, Section 5 and 6, read with Section 7 and 8 provides for felony offenses, and felony offenses appear to be fines only. First of all, is that correct?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so it is not falling into any of our classic felony categories, felony I, II, like...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, because it is not envisioned that anybody would go to prison or jail for violating this law.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. Now I want to explore with you just a little bit the parameters of some decisions that have been made and may be made shortly by this Legislature, and how it would affect this bill, and I am asking because I am not sure I understand myself, frankly. But first of all, the old court decision of Exon vs. the Board of Regents, as you know, it defined out for the university, somewhat vaguely perhaps, prerogatives of the Board of Regents, and, basically, said that in certain instances the Legislature has no constitutional right
