

February 7, 1991 LB 118

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I don't know. I don't know how many don't have it now. The cost is for the individual to bear, you understand that?

SENATOR SCHMIT: Yes, I understand that. That is what is my concern. Secondly, does it cover attorneys and auctioneers in their real estate transactions or are they already covered as of now?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: If they are a licensed realtor, yes, it would.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Are they covered now or are they not?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I have no idea.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I see. Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Schmit. We will now proceed to Senator Robinson.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Mr. President, members of the Chamber, a question for Senator Schimek, please.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Schimek, would you respond, please.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR ROBINSON: This is a commission bill, is that correct?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: That is correct.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Did they survey the agents in the state to see how they felt about it?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Not to my knowledge, Senator Robinson. However, you know, I have not heard from any who are opposed to this bill.

SENATOR ROBINSON: I made one call. I have been trying to call some people, and this one person felt that it wasn't necessary, and I guess that is the reason I (interruption)...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Why not?
