involved there, we're going to have missing in action, after it's over there's still going to be a crisis in that sense for the families and I think this is every bit the kind of symbol that ought to be up there for all of us to recognize and know and I think to have it flying over our public buildings, ought to be there supported by most everyone.

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CONWAY: But I think that it's a kind of statement that more than ever is needed now as we are close to a crisis because we're going to be facing the situation again.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Conway. We will now proceed to Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members of the body, I'm not afraid to stand up here and have the guts to tell Senator Ernie Chambers he does not speak for me in the speech that he just made. And, Ernie, when you stand and say we should, we shouldn't, you have the right to say that and, thank God you have the right to say that because if you lived in Iraq you wouldn't be saying those kinds of things that you stand on this floor and say whatever you darn well please to about this country and about the people who live in it. You have been given freedoms and opportunities because of living in the United States of America that you would never have anywhere else in the world. And sometime you ought to stand and say something about that. And I would really appreciate hearing about that once in a while instead of all the nasty negative things that you say. This is where you and I are completely at poles. I'm the mother of a son in the Air Force and he, at this point in time, is not there. I don't know what's going to happen in this war, none of us do but we are there, Ernie. And partially whether or not you want to stand and say it's because of this rotten government that we're there, yes, probably to a great degree that's true, but if we don't stop the kinds of things that are going on and that have been going on, by the way, you talked about all the things we have been doing, those things and many, many more horrible things have been done by this man on his own people in that country alone, let alone many other countries in that area. So if in the end we all want to sit here and say, oh, in the name of peace, this is all wrong, then you go ahead and say that but you better be glad there are some of us that have sons that are willing to stand up for this country so that it doesn't come
