

February 28, 1991 LB 237

SENATOR LANDIS: Are we looking at lines 10 through 20 on page 976 or 796?

SENATOR WARNER: Page 5, line 25, if you will look in the Journal.

SENATOR LANDIS: I am looking in the Journal, if you are working some other place.

SENATOR WARNER: Pardon.

SENATOR LANDIS: Can we work off the Journal, so we can harmonize this.

SENATOR WARNER: Yeah, it is page 798.

SENATOR LANDIS: 798, okay, and...

SENATOR WARNER: It is lines 12 through 19 is the two sections.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you. Yes, that would be an appropriate place to break the issue, and the purpose here is to pull out Section 3 on 798 for a division.

SENATOR WARNER: Yes, and two.

SENATOR LANDIS: That would be fine.

SENATOR WARNER: And two.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: So now we have two amendments to do. The amendment is divided. Senator Warner, do you wish to speak?

SENATOR WARNER: When it is appropriate to take that up, that division up, yes.

SPEAKER BAACK: The first amendment will be that we'll deal with everything except Sections 2 and 3. Okay, we will deal with that. Is there anyone who wishes to speak on that? Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Just for the clarification of the body, that would mean that there would be two aspects in this amendment of
