PRESIDENT MOUL: LB 254 is advanced. I will raise the call. Proceed with LB 254A.

CLERK: Madam President, 254A introduced by Senator Haberman. (Read title.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, members of the body, Madam President, this is Cash Fund money and I ask that the bill be advanced. $33,000 in '91-92 and $41,000 in '92-93.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Haberman. Senator Hillman.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Madam Chairman and members of the house, I would support the appropriation bill for 254, the reason being that what I see in many private companies and...is the preparation for retirement doesn't start till about 55 and sometimes that's too late. In looking at preparing for it, bargaining certain contracts and when it comes to labor and management, although I know it doesn't apply in the state, but still you need to look at future planning and what it is that you want to have as far as benefits go, that younger people need to realize that the investment they make, what it can mean to them 20 or 25 years down the road, and they need that
