

speakers do we have, Mr. Speaker?

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Just yourself and Senator Labeledz.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay, I'm finished, thank you.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Thank you. Senator Labeledz. You are the last speaker.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, I was going to call the question.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Senator Labeledz waives. Senator Robinson to close.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Senator Hall asked a question, are your kids...I wouldn't let my kids work for a minimum wage. Let me tell you something, Senator Hall, if you lived in some of the communities that I represent, you'd let your kid work, or he wouldn't work, believe me. I noticed all the proponents, all the people that spoke against my kill motion were from larger cities, and I'll bet you even in some of those communities there are small businesses that are having a tough time. I see Senator Labeledz, and I see Senator Rasmussen up there, and I know they're for the little person, and this is for the little guy that's trying to make, eke out a living. And believe me, folks, they're out there. I've got names of 15 of them right here. I hope you people that live and represent North Bend, Senator Conway, I hope you've checked up there at Wayne, Senator Peterson at Madison, Senator Hillman out there at Gering and Broken Bow, Senator Lamb out there at...excuse me, I was wrong, that is Senator Lamb's district. I hope Senator Schrock has called the people at Lexington and Gothenburg out in that area. I hope Senator Wickersham has talked to those people at Chadron. I hope Senator Byars has talked to those people at Gretna, Minden, Waverly, we can go right down the list, Tecumseh, West Point, Schuyler, Falls City, Nebraska City. Have you talked to those people? Senator Rogers, I wonder if he has called Ord. Senator Elmer, have you checked with McCook yet? Senator Johnson, have you called Aurora? Senator Moore, I hope you've checked with Seward and York. I just hope you've talked to the little people of Nebraska. I bring this kill motion up for the little people of Nebraska that are trying to eke out a living in a little business. I would ask for a machine vote and a roll call please, beginning. Call of the house, excuse me.
