in the recreation area. Anna had applied for funding for mostly used materials. Today, if you go to Hunts Acres, you'll see a $200,000 recreation center that provides kitchen facilities, indoor basketball court and a community hall. The gym is dedicated in honor of Anna Bleyle, with a large picture of Anna on display. Anna had asked for bigger bucks. Anna had no children of her own, but she had more children than anyone I know. I attended her funeral about two years ago, and it was a joyous celebration, a true ceremony of love. Anna's niece had lived next door to her aunt, and was in her aunt's kitchen many early mornings, and witnessed Anna starting each day with a song entitled "Heavenly Sunshine". Anna not only worked in the sunshine, but she spread sunshine for over eighty years. Her unselfish love has made my corner of the world a much better place for love and life. Thank you, Anna.
