

March 25, 1991

LB 132, 663

amendment, I am going to support it.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Withem. I'll recognize Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Pass.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: I was just going to add one thought in addition that makes...perhaps it's appropriate and logical to do, and that is this June 30th date that was...is included in the amendment rather than March, which is a little bit later, the comprehensive plan deadline is also July 1 which is of '92. This is one day ahead of that. But as a practical matter it fits in very well with the comprehensive plan of the coordinating commission as well. So everything ought to mesh much more appropriately with the amendment as stated. So I would rise to support the amendment.

SENATOR CONWAY PRESIDING

SENATOR CONWAY: Senator Nelson.

SENATOR NELSON: Are there any other to speak?

SENATOR CONWAY: There's a couple more lights after you.

SENATOR NELSON: I was going to say I'll just relinquish that. I do have to say to the body it's unfortunate maybe that LB 663, and addressed the education centers, come up before LB 132, which does establish them. And I could give the body a lot more information and make them a lot more knowledgeable about what is being proposed and what is not being proposed and so on and so forth. But I did need this amendment on LB 663 today so that everything does mesh.

SENATOR CONWAY: Thank you. Senator Hillman.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Members of the body and Mr. Chairman, I would just like to add too that Scottsbluff being one of those communities in the Panhandle that can be affected since we are strongly supporting centers for life long learning, would urge the body to support this amendment. When you talk about planning, we've been planning for several years. We've invested
