

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Morrissey. Senator Dierks.

SENATOR DIERKS: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, I just wonder how to impress on the rest of you how important the things that Senator Morrissey has told you are. He, probably above anyone else in this legislative body, understands the compact law and the compact rules. Nobody I believe can come close to it. He has explained to you the lack of a necessity for this legislation and it is true, and I hope that you don't go ahead and move this legislation on, and then have Senator Morrissey and I come back and tell you, we told you so. How many of you in this body have come to me at the time we were going through a lot of these difficult times that I have had with this whole issue and said, "Cap", we'd sure like to help you? Well, this is your opportunity right now to provide that help. Help me, help the citizens of Boyd County, help the citizens of this state. It is absolutely essential that this piece of legislation goes no farther today than a bracket motion. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Dierks. Now we will go to Senator Robak.

SENATOR ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have a question for Senator Morrissey.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Yes, ma'am.

SENATOR ROBAK: Senator, is this a filibuster?

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Parion.

SENATOR ROBAK: Is this a filibuster?

SENATOR MORRISSEY: No, no, I mean this is it. I am giving up. If I can't make my case and you don't want to come over and look at the facts, and you just want to listen to people out there who don't have any...who, if they showed you the facts, would be the same ones I am showing you.

SENATOR ROBAK: Okay, but you say the earliest they will be ready to grant the license will be in January of '92 or March of '92, is that right?

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Yes, fresh from the Department of
