

date, it doesn't work, it's too expensive and it checks every purchase, or an annual permit to purchase that is not expensive, that is administered by trained law enforcement personnel? The case is pretty clear and should be clear to all of you. Thank you

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Ashford. Next speaker, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, I wish Senator Hefner were here, and if he is within the sound of my voice, I want to tell him that I listened to him very carefully and, frankly, I'm tired of him kicking criminals around. I'm tired of all this picking on criminals. Now certainly if he has some reasonable arguments against the bill, he can do that without kicking around criminals. Some of our leading citizens are criminals and most of the leading citizens belong to Senator Hefner's party. Why there is old Richard Nixon, "Tricky Dick", the President of the United States, a criminal! And Senator Hefner has the nerve, being just a little piddling state senator in a little peanuthead Legislature like Nebraska to criticize the former President of the United States who engaged in criminal conduct. Why that is a role model for the children and he's sitting there condemning him. How does a little criminal expect to be encouraged to run for president, if Senator Hefner is going to condemn the criminals? Then there is Spiro Agnew, the man who made the memorable phrase, mattering, nabobs of negativism. He's a criminal, too, outstanding; one of the best after, before, during dinner speakers the "Repelican" party ever put together. Reporters loved to get their cameras going, get their little scratch pads out when old criminal Spiro Agnew would speak. Lyn Nofziger, I think he was a criminal, too. There were about 100 of them during Nixon and Bush's and Reagan's administration, all "Repelicans", fine upstanding criminals, best you can find in the world, not just America. And if they're the best in the world, they're best in the universe, Senator Lamb, because I don't think criminals on other planets could be as capable as those in America. Ol' Michael Miliken, you know, he's got to be a "Repelican" criminal, hogwash, holds up the sign by Senator Lamb. Is it hogwash because you say they're not criminals or because they're not "Repelicans"? You're wrong on both counts. Oliver North, Oliver North, another outstanding criminal, went before Congress. Everybody knows Ollie North and Senator Hefner would condemn Oliver North. He can't get a gun just because he's a
