

this bill a good bill. I want to make it less onerous. But there is a provision that says that there need not be notification, if there is written permission given, or written authorization by the one who should receive notification. I call this the liars bill. We have made women liars, but I appreciate Senator Labeledz, I appreciate Senator Lindsay offering this way out. So what they need to do now is figure out who would have to give that permission, then write a note saying, I, so and so, who am entitled to notification, hereby authorize so and so to have this abortion without my authorize...without my being notified; signed, yours truly, and then they sign the name of the person whose supposed to get the notification. So the bill is not going to do that much damage. And if a woman is in such desperate straits that she...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...has to have an abortion, she's in desperate enough straits to sign somebody else's name to a piece of paper.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Before we proceed to the next speaker, I would like to introduce a number of guests of the Legislature. First, guests of Senator Kristensen. In the south balcony there are 28 members of the senior class from Red Cloud with their teacher. Would you please stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. Thank you for being with us. Next, also now in the north balcony we do have guests of Senator Kristensen again. There are seven seniors from Campbell High School, from Campbell, Nebraska, with their instructor. Would you please stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. And also in the north balcony we have 23 seniors from Franklin High School in Franklin, Nebraska with their teacher. Would you please stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. And, finally, we have some guests of Senator Rogers. There are six members of the FHA seniors from Loup City with their teacher. Would you please stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. Thank you all for being with us. The next speaker is Senator Labeledz.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll just take a minute or two. I, too, Senator Chambers, appreciate the fact that this is no way anything like 1989 or 1990. I doubt, if we can go back through the hundred...the 457 pages of debate that I read over the four-day weekend, that we'd ever get this far. So I appreciate the fact that there are people that were willing to
