

flag and Senator Schimek made some good points in what is desecrating the flag? Is it a key chain or is it a coffee cup or is it a postage stamp or whatever that is, and, to me, I don't think it is. I think it's a banner that we fly and I think Senator Chambers also made mention of the fact that...about a postage stamp, licking a postage stamp, is that desecrating the flag? Well, I don't think we would use a postage stamp in a parade and this is sort of the thing that I'm talking about when I say the flag. This is my flag. And talking about mental suffering, mental physical suffering, this is as emotional to some people as the death penalty and abortion is and the veterans that have been in wars and come back from wars, when they see the flag desecrated they do, believe me, they do go through some very difficult and mental suffering, and it's a symbol of honor. And I would like to have this bill take away some of those wrongs that our country did, but this bill is not designed to right any wrong that our country has done. It's just a matter of, in my mind I think it's wrong to desecrate the flag and I don't know if I'm right or wrong in that statement, but I do think it's wrong to desecrate the flag and I do support LR 10. Thank you.
