LB 396, 714, 830A

getting started, too. But they have committed on 22 miles of trails. I've passed out to you, for your information, a chart that might be of interest to you that shows the different states and their commitments to trails. And let me tell you that it's not just trails that people in the other states are...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...concentrating on now in order to attract industry and attract corporate people to their state. They're launching into general conservation and recreation programs related to the trails concept, and also related to broader concepts of recreation. Wisconsin, for example, in '89 their Legislature...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...approved of...thank you, Mr. Speaker, I'll go on later.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: I move we recess until one-thirty.

SPEAKER BAACK: Mr. Clerk, items for the record.

CLERK: Mr. President, reminder, Appropriations Committee will meet at eleven-fifteen...twelve-fifteen, excuse me, twelve-fifteen, Senator Moore has corrected me, twelve-fifteen, Appropriations Committee. New A bill. (Read LB 830A by title for the first time. See page 1683 of the Legislative Journal.)

Confirmation report from the Government Committee, signed by Senator Conway. And Senator Robak would like to add her name to LB 396 as co-introducer, Mr. President. And that's all that I have.

SPEAKER BAACK: All right. I might announce now that tomorrow, it is the day before an adjournment day, but I do plan on recessing for lunch tomorrow, and then we'll go to work back again at one-thirty. With that, you've heard the motion to recess till one-thirty. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no.
