

concerns to the table, they're going to be able to analyze the procedure and try to relate to it as to how it might work through their county, if there was a change. This isn't going to be a bunch of individuals who have never been involved in the process. I expect that at least three, including the Secretary of State who we also put on the board, who has his expertise in election law, there's four, we're slowly working our way through a group of people that I think, in many cases, are going to be some of the best experts, working experts in the state relative to election law.
