

levels. We need to tell the Department of Environmental Control it's your job to protect the citizens of this state, to follow the laws of this state and to do your duty. Our body as a Legislature is to protect the citizens and insist on accountability. There has been none. We're asking to start now. We want to change the course of all of these issues and we want to start now. We're asking please pay attention, state agencies, be accountable to the citizens because we as legislators are accountable and this affects all of us, folks, right now and we need to make that statement here. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Morrissey. We will now proceed to vote on the amendment by Senator Morrissey. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Senator Lindsay, or, Senator Morrissey I mean.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Thank you. I would ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

SPEAKER BAACK: A call of the house has been requested. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

SPEAKER BAACK: The house is under call. All members please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. All members, please record your presence. The house is under call. Members, please report to the Chamber, the house is under call. Senator Labedz, please record your presence. We're looking for Senators Pirsch, Wesely and Wickersham. While we're waiting for the members to get here I would like to introduce some guests of the Legislature. They are guests of Senator Richard Peterson. They are 41 fourth graders from the Jefferson School in Norfolk and their teachers and they're in the south balcony. Would you please stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. Thank you for being with us. We are looking for Senators Pirsch and Schimek. All members are present. We had a request for a roll call vote. Proceed, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read roll call vote. See pages 1843-44 of the Legislative Journal.) 26 ayes, 17 nays.

SPEAKER BAACK: The amendment passes. Mr. Clerk, next item on the bill.
