

asinine that the IRS changed their rules and regulations. That calf is not a cow at conception, and these girls are not cows. It just perturbs me to no end to think that that will be passed out on this floor, and we're not stooping to that level. And I know Richard Peterson, I'll bet you he never even read this. And I don't know if it's Madison Right to Life, or I hope it's Madison, Wisconsin instead of Madison, Nebraska. And I just...that's the whole problem with this whole thing. It really, as you can see, it really bothers me when we start talking about young girls and their life and these unborn children. That cow doesn't know whether she's going to raise these children, she doesn't know if she's going to raise that calf, or whether she's going to pay for it, or who's going to adopt it or what. And we tend to go to that. Back in the next one, did you know? I will tell you there are more die from emergency room and from my doctor from abortions, if they were illegal, than legal abortions. And I know this bill is going to pass. All of us want to make it the best bill we can. But if that's what's going to come from the Rotunda, let's keep our discussion inside of this house.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Thank you, Senator Nelson. Our next speaker on the Chambers amendment is Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the body, I don't know that I want to follow Senator Nelson or not. I'm not going to say anything to get her riled up this afternoon. But I would like to ask a question of Senator Chambers, if I might. I'm willing to take him on.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's because I'm such a kind-hearted gentlemen. Yes, Senator Smith, any time.

SENATOR SMITH: Right. Ernie, you might recall that when this bill was discussed, some years previous to this, I had a real concern about this very issue, only my concern was...and it has been included in the bill at this point in time, which now has become I think it's Section 6 of the bill, and that deals with if she reaches the point where she has now gotten to the doctor whose going to be the abortionist that he has a requirement that he must notify her of the provisions of the bill and tell her that he's going to have to let the proper authorities know about this, and so on. So that's included in the bill now, and I'm
