

SENATOR MORRISSEY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...the bill are met.

SENATOR SMITH: So she couldn't get that abortion anyway, and she needs to know that, if that's what her other idea is to do, rather than going one of the two routes you've used here. I think that you should give her all three provisions of the bill.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I don't object to that. But I was just trying to make clear, with reference to the declaration, that that won't always come into play.

SENATOR SMITH: I just read that as the part that I was dealing with.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Gottcha.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I wouldn't object to it.

SENATOR SMITH: Would you...then you would be willing to add that section to it?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'd be willing to support you, if you'll add it.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then I know I've got your support.

SENATOR SMITH: All right, thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Thank you, Senator Smith. Our next speaker would be Senator Rasmussen.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. Chairman, is that what you are? Mr. Chairman and members of the body, I rise in support of this amendment, and I think it's only reasonable that if we pass legislation that we share information with young people about how it's going to impact them. I think Senator Smith brought up
