

is laughable. It is laughable. I have got it right here. In a convention of sociologists, they discussed that study and the participants of a convention laughed out loud, folks. They laughed out loud, it is that badly done. We shouldn't be afraid to do it because we are afraid to find out what it might say. If we do not do this, and we adopt other provisions in LB 827, we have no way to question it. No one who knows the licensing provisions, if we do a direct appeal to the Supreme Court on the record, we have no way of later saying, gosh, it is too bad...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: ...but we can't bring it up now. We cannot bring it up now. So please help these people out, do what the federal regs require, fulfill the intent and the rule of the law, do the sociocultural study, help these people out. Let's find out what is going to happen up there. Let's check it out. Let's don't be afraid of the results. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Morrissey. The next speaker is Senator Peterson.

SENATOR PETERSON: I call the question.

SPEAKER BAACK: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. We will now proceed to vote on ceasing debate. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. We are voting on ceasing debate, have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to cease debate.

SPEAKER BAACK: Debate has ceased. Senator Morrissey, would you like to close on your amendment?

SENATOR MORRISSEY: I certainly would. Thank you, sir. Now the one thing that was brought up was the stack of letters you have on the folks that are in favor of this facility. I have got them, too. There is 90 of them. These folks never attended the hearings unless money was talked about, folks. If there was money at a hearing, those people were there. They were there. A few of them were at almost all hearings, but the largest mass of people that migrate here from all the districts weren't concerned about money. Some of them even said take your money and put it somewhere where we can't see it. We don't want to talk about it. Keep it in the safe. We don't want to have
