

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Tell me how it doesn't. She cannot get qualified for judicial bypass.

SENATOR LINDSAY: The bill will allow the woman to state that she is a victim of sexual abuse, and the physician can then perform the abortion without the parental notification.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Suppose she doesn't know about that.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Doesn't know about what?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That she can say she's the victim of abuse and bypass that.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Well I think what you've gotten, at least my understanding is that we're going to notify the minors of their rights.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How are you going to do it, because she doesn't go to school. He doesn't let her go to school.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Okay, then they walk into the physicians office. I assume the physician is going to give at least some sort of information before performing abortion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So we have all these speculative ways by which she may not go into that abusive situation that eases your conscience with this bill.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Basically, that's what you're telling me.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I...I...I don't like the phrasing, but yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Senator Lindsay is a very honest man. He's struggling with his conscience. Now, Senator Lindsay, if you...

SENATOR LINDSAY: It will never (interrupted-inaudible).

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...were to be judged by a man, such as myself, and I tell you I'm not religious, you'd go to heaven. But, if you're judged by your Christian brothers and sisters,
