

has been a good discussion and I'm not sure that I can add anything more, except I don't think we should do something without overt action in this body. I don't think everything should come back on the tax rolls, unless this body votes to do that, specifically votes to do that. The way the bill is at this point, with all amendments, if there's no action, if there's complete stalling, if there's filibuster, if there's an earthquake, or whatever, then automatically everything comes back on. And that's just not the way to legislate, so I would ask that the amendment be adopted.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, we need to get everyone here before we vote. Members, please record your presence. Looking for Senators Peterson, Robinson, and Dierks, Horgan, and Lowell Johnson. Senator Rogers.

SENATOR ROGERS: Mr. President, members, I've got another announcement to make today. I want to let everyone know that I found the tickets to the Rotunda ball, the ones I lost yesterday. Now that's just the first half. The other half of the announcement is there's some of you have not bought tickets yet, so I'd kind of like to see you before you go home tonight. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Rogers. We're looking for Senators Dierks and Robinson. Senator Lamb, they can't locate Senator Dierks, and Senator Robinson is testifying, I think, right now. Go ahead? Okay. We will proceed now with a machine vote on the amendment by Senator Lamb. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 21 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: The amendment fails. The call is raised. Mr. Clerk, next item.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have is by Senators Schellpeper, Rogers and Lamb. Senator, I have AM1822 in front of me.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Mr. Speaker and members, I would ask unanimous consent to substitute 1831 for 1822, primarily because of things
