package. Because I keep hearing over and over again that the vast majority...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR HALL: ...of this is agreeable to virtually everyone on the floor. I have no problem trying to correct that portion between now and Select File that appears to be the object of all this debate. I think leaving Senator Lamb's amendment on, which strips that portion out, and going about the process of looking for replacement revenue is the right way to deal with this, and then we can get on to some of the other issues that are before us. I would hope you would support the reconsideration.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Hall. The next speaker is Senator Lynch. I don't see Senator Lynch. Senator Chizek.

SENATOR CHIZEK: Question.

SPEAKER BAACK: Do I see five hands? I certainly do. We will now vote on ceasing debate. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 10 ayes, 13 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: Debate does not cease. Senator Schellpeper, you are next.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members. I would like to ask Senator Hall some questions, if I might.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Hall, would you respond, please.

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Senator Hall, if we are going to take the amendment off that we put on yesterday and consider the Lamb amendment, which now has a surcharge of 2 percent, would you be willing to accept the high income tax bracket to replace some of that surcharge?

SENATOR HALL: Senator Schellpeper, to replace the surcharge.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Yes. Right now, as the amendment is, it is saying that it is at 2 percent, which is very high for most
