

Clearly, I...if you look at the track record, I'm closer to moving it down than you are, but the answer to that question is yes.

SENATOR LAMB: Then would you be able to share with us any insight as to where you plan to find additional funds to fully fund the so-called...I guess, $95 million?

SENATOR HALL: Well, I thought I'd take out a loan from Senator Hefner, but frankly, I can't tell you that. I...you know, it's not my decision, Senator Lamb. All I'm going to do is help facilitate that process. I intend to sit down with the staff and the committee, members of the committee, the entire Legislature will be invited to look at some options that we'll put together for you, discuss that off the floor so that it's not a 25 votes or not to deal with the issue. I clearly don't know. It's going to have to be a decision that has to be made by the body as a whole, not by one individual or even a group of individuals. That's the decision we made when we just adopted this amendment. I intend to deal with options in that same manner.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Hall, do you have any time table when we may either have this conversation or when there may be possibly a decision made or at least the options thrown out for people to consider?

SENATOR HALL: Senator Lamb, I'll try to have the options to you early next week, early being Monday or Tuesday, and I'd like to get together and chat, you know, shortly thereafter.

SENATOR LAMB: Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Lamb. Senator Withem. Senator Wehrbein. Senator Hall, do you wish to close? Senator Will, excuse me, Senator Will's bill. Senator Will, do you wish to close?

SENATOR WILL: Thank you. I'll give Senator Hall some time, no, I think we've had a full debate on the bill. Obviously, the amendment we just adopted became the bill. LB 829 as originally advanced would have put all personal property back on the tax rolls. Clearly, it's in very different form at this time. And as I said when I addressed the amendment that Senator Hall and I filed that was ultimately adopted, we're at a point now where we
