

36 fourth graders from Underwood Hill School in Omaha with their instructors. Would they stand and be recognized, please. Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Mr. President and members, I need to ask Senator Ashford, I believe, a few questions, if he would so yield.

SENATOR CONWAY: Senator Ashford.

SENATOR ASHFORD: Yes.

SENATOR MOORE: A couple questions on cost, lo and behold that I would be the one to ask I guess, Senator Ashford. The first question on the buyer permit card, that system, now is that going to be paid for by whom?

SENATOR ASHFORD: The three year certificate will be paid for by the purchaser. It's a $5 fee.

SENATOR MOORE: Does it say $5 in here somewhere?

SENATOR ASHFORD: I believe it does, I believe it does, with the amendment it does, Senator Moore, yes.

SENATOR MOORE: Okay. And so you perceive that to be a cash funded type situation.

SENATOR ASHFORD: Exactly. For example, the cost in Omaha, for each...when they get a permit each time, it's $4.70. So it's expected that the $5...

SENATOR MOORE: And who actually runs that, the State Patrol?

SENATOR ASHFORD: No, local...local law enforcement would run that part of it. The local...

SENATOR MOORE: But there is a state part of it that has a state form...

SENATOR ASHFORD: Well, it's designed by the state, but the form is actually kept and maintained locally.

SENATOR MOORE: But it would not be like a...

SENATOR ASHFORD: There isn't much of a cost...
