

Murphy Avenue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And in whose district did you say that is?

SENATOR HALL: It happens to be in the Seventh District.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And whose district is that?

SENATOR HALL: I represent that district.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If you look at the way they've been...various people have been talking about my district, that may wind up as a part of mine before it's over, but we'll just see how that works out.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Chambers, if that were the case, mark your days. (Laughter.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, I certainly would not want to have a head to head meeting with you in an election contest. But, Senator Hall, how long does the average baseball game last in terms of whatever units they use to measure whatever it is they do?

SENATOR HALL: Nine innings, timewise about three, three and a half hours.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think that having people be at one of these...these activities for that amount of time is bettering the community?

SENATOR HALL: Oh, sure, it keeps them off the street.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, who goes to these activities, criminals? They're the kind of people you would rather not have on the streets?

SENATOR HALL: Families go to these kinds of things.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And it's better to have them down there in the stadium than on the street?

SENATOR HALL: Oh, they might be home watching cable TV or something like that otherwise. It's...I think it's just a good pastime, good activity for families to go out and watch some baseball being played. As a matter of fact, there's a game
