of it now, so...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Oh, that's all I have. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Robinson. Senator Wesely, would you like to close now?

SENATOR WESELY: Yes. I hope I've answered the questions. I understand Senator Moore's concern. I absolutely, positively commit to working this through if there are...I just see no glitches, but if anybody has any remaining doubts, this does not mandate anything. It authorizes the opportunity to use this match and not waste it. I don't see how we can lose by at least proceeding to authorize this action and move forward with the different entities involved. They have agreed to this amendment. I hope you will as well. Please adopt this amendment.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Wesely. We will now vote on the Wesely amendment. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted on the Wesely amendment? Have you all voted? Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Ask for a call of the house, please.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We have a request for a call of the house. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The house is under call. Would all unexcused senators please return to the Chamber and record their presence. All unauthorized personnel must leave the floor. Will the senators please return to their seats and please check in. We are under call. Would the senators please check in. Senator Smith, Senator Schimek, please check in. Senator Robinson, please check in. We're looking for Senator Ashford, Senator Warner, Senator Nelson, Senator Lamb. We are still looking for Senator Lamb. The house is under call. Would the senators please be seated. Senator Bernard-Stevens, would you please check in. We will now have a roll call vote on the Wesely amendment. Would the senators please be seated. Reverse order has been requested. (Gavel.) Please proceed, Mr. Clerk.
