

blizzard that we talked about, paper on our desks, a new kind of paper coming in just in the last few minutes. A little while ago we had the first opportunity to cease debate. I voted green and I did it because until that time we hadn't had time out there for anything to happen to influence our decisions in here, and I'm going to tell you I think this is a pretty good-looking rabbit and let's do this before the magic out there makes that rabbit disappear.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Smith. Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Madam President and members of the body, Senator Hall, here I thought you went to your child's graduation today and here you're doing something else. Isn't that true? But I believe, I believe I can support this, but I do need to ask a couple of questions.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Hall, remember a couple of months ago when I opposed a sales tax on newspaper subscriptions and advertising and like that.

SENATOR HALL: Very well.

SENATOR HEFNER: As I understand it now, subscriptions by mail, advertising, delivery of newspapers wouldn't include sales tax. Is that correct?

SENATOR HALL: That's correct.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay. So I can support that. Okay, legal services, 19.2 million. Is that for state only, state sales tax only?

SENATOR HALL: That represents only the state's portion of the sales tax, yes.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay. Don't we dedicate 1 percent of our sales tax to LB 1059?

SENATOR HALL: No.
