levels that we needed to accomplish the one person/one vote rule. So, with that, I offer the Public Service Commission plan and the amendments that describe that plan to the body for their adoption.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Conway. Senator Wehrbein, followed by Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, Madam President and members, I just have a question for my education, Senator Conway.

SENATOR CONWAY: Go ahead.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: There is no, as I just look at this, there is no counties broken except Douglas, and is that true, and Sarpy, is that right? Every other counties are complete?

SENATOR CONWAY: Let me grab my notes and I can tell you for sure, but I believe you're correct in that. No, that is not correct. There is one other. Knox County, as you can see, was adjusted. If you look at the top of the map, about half of Knox, the western half of Knox...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR CONWAY: ..is in the 5th, but other than that, that is it, yes.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay. I...that's...I was just...kind of point of information. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you. If Senator Conway would yield to a question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Conway.

SENATOR CONWAY: Yes.

SENATOR WESELY: Senator Conway, I just...I don't have a map in front of me of the previous districts. Does this make major changes in that, or how much of an adjustment are we making here?
