

plant?

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Schmit, that is three minutes. I am going to go back to Senator Lynch then.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Fine.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: How much time do I have, Mr. Speaker?

SPEAKER BAACK: Two minutes.

SENATOR LYNCH: Oh, I will just call the question, then. Oh, can't I? Well, you have got your choice, I can't do that either..

SPEAKER BAACK: That would be out of order, Senator Lynch, after yielding some of your time.

SENATOR LYNCH: Does that mean I have to say something anyhow then?

SPEAKER BAACK: Or you could just sit down.

SENATOR LYNCH: Just give him my two minutes back. If I promise to give him my two minutes back, will everybody else promise to get on with it so we get to a vote pretty quickly then? No, I will give it back to whoever wants to use it and, hopefully, profitably.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Senator Schmit, you have one minute left.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Ladies and gentlemen, laugh if you will, it is not a laughing matter. It is dead serious. We are playing around with the businesses of Nebraska, farmers and Chief Industries and others. We are correct when we say you shouldn't give one year and take away, but we made a mistake a year ago. We made a mistake. We knew we made a mistake, but no one would believe us. Ladies and gentlemen, this debate should not be short term, it should not be curtailed. It should be as long as is necessary to thoroughly lay out all of the issue. Let me say this, I believe in production credits for new production. I
