picking up the tab and they are the ones that are going to be getting the benefit of not paying personal property tax. And so rather than support this, I think I will probably wait for the other one that is going to be coming up, but I think whatever we do, we have to make sure that the low to middle income people do not have to pick up this tab. So with that, I will not be supporting it. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Schellpeper. Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Thank you, Madam Chair, and members of the Legislature. I rise to support the plan offered by Senator Moore. That isn't to say that I would not support some other plan that may be offered later this afternoon, but I think this has good attributes, and is a plan that could easily be a very temporary plan, whereas some of the other plans that we have heard about have more of a potential, I believe, to become permanent taxes which I don't think we should be considering on a temporary basis. I think Senator Moore's plan would be acceptable to a lot of people. It spreads out the load and I think he has a good idea here.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Lamb. Senator Withem.

SENATOR WITHEM: I would call the question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: I see sufficient seconds. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Debate has ceased. I will recognize Senator Moore for closing.

SENATOR MOORE: Well, the debate on this was limited. I don't have a problem with that, it was simple enough, and a simple up or down vote is probably necessary on this. But one of the things that it seems like the general mood of the body here today is once again there seems to be some sort of consensus built as there has been a couple of times before. And I guess without having having seen the new proposal, I don't know exactly what is in it. I know Senator Hall did describe it. I know there are some things in there that are going to cause some people problems. There are some things in there that are
