

who owns land of anything that they are entitled to. No property in this society is owned absolutely. The state, by eminent domain, can take it for a public purpose. Zoning laws and regulations can be enacted. Environmental protection rules and regulations can be enforced on a person's private property,...

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ..and if those things can be done, I certainly think the safety of individuals should be protected.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Schellpeper. There's no one else wishing to speak on the issue, I will recognize Senator Elmer for closing.

SENATOR ELMER: Thank you, Madam President. I think that everything has been pretty well said. I would simply ask for the reconsideration motion and ask all the members to support it, and if Senator Wickersham has anything to add, I'd yield the balance of my closing time.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Okay. Senator Wickersham waives off. We will now vote on the motion to reconsider. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted on the motion to reconsider? Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Senator Elmer.

SENATOR ELMER: Looks like we have quite a few chicken eaters yet. I'd ask for a call of the house, please.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We've had a request for call of the house. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 15 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The house is under call. Will the senators please be seated and please check in. All unexcused senators, please return to the Chambers and record their presence. The house is under call. Please check in. Would the senators please check in. Looking for Senator Hillman, Senator Hall, Senator Wesely. Senator Hall and Senator Wesely, would you please return to the Chambers and please check in. We're looking for Senator Hall.
