

is reasonably fair and I don't have a concern that reasonable and fair and equitable exemptions or alternative forms of taxations would not survive because I think in most cases they probably would unless they truly should not and I think this is an opportunity to strengthen the passage of this resolution on the ballot of the special election.

PRESIDENT MOUL: One minute.

SENATOR WARNER: Secondly, it is a separate ballot item. It will not be proposed as it is included in the main one. It will be a separate opportunity for the voters to address. I'd hope the body would adopt the amendment.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Warner. I remind the senators that the house is under call. Would you please check in. Have Senator Warner, Senator Lamb, Senator Lowell Johnson. Senator Lamb, would you please return to the Chambers. We will proceed with a roll call vote on the Warner amendment.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 2735 of the Legislative Journal.) 33 ayes, 9 nays, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The amendment is adopted. I will raise the call and further amendments, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Hall would move to amend. Senator, AM2248 in front of me. (Hall amendment appears on pages 2735-36 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Madam President, members, this is not passed out to you. It is an amendment that was brought to us by the administration. It is a technical amendment. It really does nothing more than strike a provision that is a redundancy in the constitutional amendment as it exists and then renumbers sections. If you'll look at page 6, Section 8, subsection 4, the commutation clause, all we do is strike that provision from the constitutional amendment because it doesn't need to take place because of our, in a couple other places within the proposed constitutional amendment we deal with the issue, notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution. Because we do that, there is no need. It's been determined to include the new language that would have been added to the
