

Okay, three, your children are grown up but say you had grandchildren, you had extra money that you could put into their future education; or, four, you could invest bonds in this railroad, now you tell me in priority ranking how you would invest your money. Now, you know, you are going to take that money that you are going to invest for your retirement and you are going to buy those railroad bonds, now tell me, honestly, how would you prioritize those?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Robinson, I think that you have an answer that you want and I am going to let you respond to your question, and next time I am not going to be paying any attention to you at all so you won't call on me.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, I just...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I am not (interruption)...

SENATOR ROBINSON: You are vacillating, is that right?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Senator Chambers, let me ask you a question. Now you heard my question, you know, evidently she couldn't work up enough courage to answer it. How would you do that? Now let me reit...you can buy some good mutual funds, common stock mutual funds, probably get you 12 percent, you know, over the years, you have a retirement; the alternative would be investing in the railroad fund or into the bonds for your retirement, or for your grandchildren's education, or buying these railroad funds, now how would you priority rank those as far as investments, number one being the best?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I'd bet on the Los Angeles Lakers to win the championship, I'd bet on the mutual funds, and then the railroad bonds I wouldn't even consider.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay, thank you. I am not trying to be smart. I am just being honest with you. What would you do if you had that money to invest, if you had 25, 30 million dollars? I mean if it is such a good deal, why...if it is such a good deal, why isn't there an outpouring of money from up on the, what is it, Highway 20, I guess? You know, and I think Senator Morrissey brought that up, where is the investment from out there? Okay, we talk about it is a rural project. Why don't we
