

don't have the operating expenses, they won't need any offices. If you don't believe me, Charles Lamphear is back here, he's in charge of the Bureau of Business Research. If you don't believe me, go back and ask him. Don't buy this blindly now. It's very important, very important thing for the State of Nebraska. They have a large council of business representatives throughout the state that meets with the Bureau of Business Research and they're heavily involved. Now you can talk about the 312,000 dollars all you want to, but remember it's for salaries. The money we're talking about is running the organization. I urge you to support this override. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Robinson. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Madam President, I call the question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Have a motion to call the question. I see sufficient seconds. Now vote on the motion to cease debate. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted on the motion to cease debate? Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 10 nays to cease debate, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We have ceased debate. I'll recognize Senator Robinson for closing.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Madam President, members of the body, we heard this in Appropriations Committee and, in fact, I think it was a unanimous vote when it passed, and I tried to get 125,000 dollars, which I wasn't successful in getting, but I think...I even think Senator Moore voted for it at that time, I believe? No?

SENATOR MOORE: No.

SENATOR ROBINSON: No? No? Oh, well, I guess you voted "no" on a few others, but, you know, it's interesting though a lot...as I watch this process this last day, several of these things that we voted for in the Appropriations Committee have bubbled to the top, you know, and there's been a few that have passed, and there probably isn't one more important than this one. We can talk about Senator Lynch's programs, which are very worthy programs. We can talk about Senator Chambers' programs and several others, but this is very vital to the business of
