

what this bill addresses?

SENATOR WESELY: Yeah, but this amendment doesn't...isn't really the heart of that issue. I would prefer...

SENATOR ROBAK: To go to the...

SENATOR WESELY: ...to go to the bill and then I would...

SENATOR ROBAK: ...bill later.

SENATOR WESELY: ...answer your question, if you don't mind.

SENATOR ROBAK: Thank you.

SENATOR WESELY: Would that be all right?

SENATOR ROBAK: That would be all right.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Pirsch, did you wish to discuss the amendment further?

SENATOR PIRSCH: Yes, I'm sorry, one thing more came to mind. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Another question of Senator Wesely, if I could.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Wesely, would you respond?

SENATOR WESELY: Sure.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Senator Wesely, does this do anything to our standard of proof for that person to get out of the institution?

SENATOR WESELY: Oh, no, not at all.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Pirsch. Any other discussion on the amendment to the committee amendments offered by Senator Wesely? Senator Wesely, did you wish to close?

SENATOR WESELY: Yeah, let...Mr. Speaker, I think I did a poor job in explaining the amendment and Senator Pirsch rightfully asked questions about it. This isn't an attempt to open up, it's to tighten up. We have had a problem with the judge being
