SENATOR LINDSAY: Senator, if you don't run for reelection they may want you to have...(laughter)

SENATOR HORGAN: Yeah, but I could get, but, in effect, if I took...

SENATOR LINDSAY: Sure.

SENATOR HORGAN: ...contributions after the April date,...

SENATOR LINDSAY: You bet.

SENATOR HORGAN: ...didn't run for reelection but claimed it was for a campaign committee of the next campaign which never occurred, I'd get around it. I could spend $70,000 and never pay the tax.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yeah. Like I say, in that situation if you know you're not going to run again, yeah, that is certainly a possibility.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time. Thank you, Senator Horgan. Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Madam President and members, I'd like to ask Senator Lindsay some questions too, please. It's not clear to me buy maybe it's so apparent it is obvious. Can this, these taxes can be paid from campaign funds?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yes.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: But if there is not adequate money for the campaign funds, then you are personally responsible.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Right.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: And I could figure out a way to make those deductible I suppose if I was an old native too, right.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I don't know. I can probably get you a legal opinion on it if...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That was a joke. But...I assume that over time that this will become, if this would pass, that we would
