

in Omaha,...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Uh-huh.

SENATOR LINDSAY: ..I think. Jesse, would you be able to help me out on that? (Laugh)

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, I don't want to put my...

SENATOR LINDSAY: I think it's hers.

SENATOR ROBINSON: ..I don't want to (inaudible) my good friend. Forget the question. I want to put my good friend (inaudible).

SENATOR LINDSAY: Actually, I'm being reminded, yeah, I think actually there was one from the Neligh area that was...John DeCamp raised 110,000. Have been a couple close to 100,000 in Omaha.

SENATOR ROBINSON: An' he got beat, didn't he, when he raised 110? Did he get beat when...?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Well, he had the quality of candidate run against him was...

SENATOR ROBINSON: That's right, he did. He really did, yes.

SENATOR LINDSAY: ..was phenomenal, but...

SENATOR ROBINSON: You know, Senator Byars made the comment about washing out your opponent. Well, when you have excessive funds to use I think you're...I think you're washing out your opponent too and, you know, John, I like that one comment you said. John, it says, I made the note, John agreed with me. You know, I really like that comment, John, because I don't get people to agree with me very often. Even Senator Cudaback said that and I really appreciate that, but I'm starting...you're starting to win me over. I want you to know that, John, because I didn't realize that it was unconstitutional to set a limit. Can we set a limit on...is there a limit on...what's the limit on PACs that they can give you?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Limit on what?

SENATOR ROBINSON: That a PAC can give a legislative candidate?
