

January 17, 1992 LB 191

music. And they say, you don't turn it down and we'll call a game warden. And I say, not only will I not turn it down, I'm going to turn it up because I love this tune. This is Buddy Holly, my favorite. Am I in violation of LB 191?

SENATOR CHIZEK: No.

SENATOR LANDIS: Why? Because this word says if I have an aural stimulus under my control and I intend to harass, obstruct or prevent sport hunting by playing my music and I've turned it up in the face of somebody telling me to turn it down, even though I was there first, I don't see where the language of this bill says no.

SENATOR CHIZEK: Then I think in the enforcement provision, Senator Landis, that...

SENATOR LANDIS: Where?

SENATOR CHIZEK: ...that's where it would be...

SENATOR LANDIS: Would you read me the section?

SENATOR CHIZEK: Well...

SENATOR LANDIS: Would you tell me the language that will say that that isn't the case.

SENATOR CHIZEK: Do you want to give me a minute?

SENATOR LANDIS: I will. I'm sorry, I really was asking.

SENATOR CHIZEK: You know, we don't have a machine gun, give me a chance to find it...

SENATOR LANDIS: Fair enough.

SENATOR CHIZEK: ...Senator, I'd appreciate that.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Landis, are you still wishing to speak on the bill?

SENATOR LANDIS: Actually I'm trying to wait for an appropriate amount of time here to find the answer to my question.
