SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, it will go down just to phone lines and fax.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, that is correct.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Morrissey.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Some questions, or a question I guess.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Let's say I fax over my computer. I've had a problem that I want to access the computer in the building which I think, from home which is fine, Legislature won't pay for it and I don't know that my campaign can pay for it because it wouldn't be for campaign purposes necessarily, it would be for serving the constituents but not necessarily campaigning. So we're just talking telephone and fax machine, it wouldn't address that and if I fax over a computer which I do?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I'm not sure I'm understanding the question.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: You said you're going to limit it just to telephones and fax machines. I fax over my computer.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well we can think about that.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: And also what I was saying is that, you know, I want to access to the data base up here from home and the...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: But you said you're not using it for campaign purposes.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Well, I would use it for all purposes, but that wouldn't...that's an area that's unclear to me. I'm trying to get somebody to help me pay for that or give us the ability to touch the data base up here and it's not clear whether it's
